HOW IT WAS DONE

Who in this district does not know harles Wagner? Who has not heard hearley beast of his loyalty and his demonstrate to vote on the Conservative lide? Who, we say, could doubt before an election but what the old man meant wote on the side he has always supertied? Well, he did not vote on that the, nor did he vote et all. It was done at this way. The poor old man was died with liquor the even ing before the lection and when inexplote of taking are of himself, or knowing what was seng done with him, he was put into a sleigh and driven out to the farm of a proment local Grit. There he was kept all a galt. He was used we so far as bodily enforts were concerned. He had a goad bedroom, a comfortable bed,—in et such a one as the old man has not dept in for years,—theory to cat and the animated use of a bottle of whiskey. When it was too hat he him to get to soil where he was supposed to rote he was taken back to the city. How do some of the would-be-beheved purist party like this kini of thing. The wicked Fornes: The corrupt Tories, as these heaven born Grits would say, may be guilty of such things but we are Reformers. We would not be guilty of such things but we are Reformers. We would not be guilty of the above transaction.

PERJURY CASE.

Calgory, N. W. T., March 5.—The perjuty chao of the Queen vs. Forrest, alloged to have been committed in the Ede Herchmer case, in which Forrest denied having laid information against Nellie Webb, pro attitute, for having liquor in her possession, came up before Magniartae Shelton yesterday. Constable Oakes deposed that about September Magniartae Shelton yesterday. Constable Oakes deposed that about September Sch, 1889 while on duty he was stopped by Forrest, who told him about whiskey being in Webb spoessoon, njoining secrety. Witness got also greater warrant said bound liquor, and hat Webb convicted and fined. Macarthy, Forrester's counsel, he cobjected, stating that a great outrage had been committed in having he client arrested on this charge, as a case of perjury could not be hid unless the slegged perjury had an absolute bearing on the point atissue. The crown prosecutor added for an adjournment to allow but to book his point up, which was granted.

ELECTRICITY POPULAR-

ELECTRICITY POPULARIn another column will be found the advertisement of the Owen Electric Belt and Belt and Appliance Company of Chicago, of which Dr. Owen is president and general manager. The doctor is a thorough electrician and invented the first electric belt that had more than two dectrodes. He also invented the first belt where the current can be so controlled that a child can war the same belt as a man. The company was innor porated about three pears ago, with a cash capital of $60,000, and is thoroughly reliable. Their goods are all covered by patents in the United States, Canada and continental Europe. So great has the demand become for their electrical appliances in Canada, that a branch has been pend at Toronto, Ontario, with the same facilities for manufacturing that they possess at headquarters. The Canada and Mr. G. C. Patterson, for over twenty years a resident of Toronto, who will be pleased to answer all enquired such a summary of the control of Mr. G. C. Patterson, for over twenty years a resident of Toronto, who will be pleased to answer all enquired reality of the basiness. Their offices and factory are at 71 King street, wear.

In Canala rival politicians are calling one another traitors and other hard names. The general election is exciting the agrices passions. One side country annexed to the United States. Chaadian politicians, perfectly we for the country annexed to the United States. The accusation is in regard to many Canadian politicians, perfectly with that had it delated to the course of a week, will not be decive as to the status of Canada, but it will thow a great deal of light upon the question whether the Canadian will be wain true to England or will cast in their low with that of their neighbors.—Berkshire Chronicle (England.)

Toronto, March 6.—This morning a letter is published from Hon. Ed. Blake to the members of the West. Durham Reform convention. In it he says that much so it grieves him to differ with his friends he cannot conscientiously support. Commorcial Union of Unrestricted Reciprocity. He concludes thus: "Now, while unable to fight under false colors, neither can I endure at the very height and erisis of the Busites into which as wrongful desolution has unexpectedly plunged the Liveral party, to take a different tack or to 'arm one heastle grin against the well-loved friends, in, whose company, whether as contrade, or a commander, I have saled so many stormy seas, and fought so many hot engagements, whose general course I approve, and whose shipel wish not wrecked, but safe to port. What then, is left for me to do? This only: Since I cannot help, to hurt as little as I may, and therefore goodown with my own little ship in silence, bearing for a moment all consec, bearing for a moment all consequent misconstruction, and I leaving all the ides of March be past the explanation of my action. May I be you, thus, to treat my statement made now to you seen as given for the time in scarced confidence, to accept my heartful thank and undying gratitude for your past kindness, and to let me wish you, with emotion deeper than I can express, an affectionate farewell."

The following is one of Ferre's tree; sensible letters, which speaks for itsel; Toronto, April 22nd, 1889.

My Draw Mr. Wixas:—Gar Ottawa man will send a good summary of your speech, so that on our account you need not go to the trouble of preparation. At present the C. C. movement is at a stand still. First of all, the Jesuit agitation, which is here to stay, has to some extension and the still still the standard of the left is that the Republicans would not light not any such scheme. Thirdly, a very large number of people are inclined to think that we had better make for annexation at once, instead of making two bites of the cherry. Lastly, the old pattice here are rapidly breaking up, and when Sir John goos we shall, he addiff without a port in eight, save annexation Mercover, although the Liberals have takee up C. U., they are not pushing it with any vigor. For these reasons the Madichas, in the slang of the day, given the subject a treat. There is really no use talking it up to a people, whose politics are in a state of flux, and whose further subject as well as with Manichous, and talk him just what he says I did, namely, that the smaller forces favor annexation and will favor it all the more if C. U. be withheld. It seems to me, and I have talked the thing over lately with Maritime members as well as with Manichous, that C. C. would only delay the coming of the cent the provinces referred to, C. U. does not take hold, whereas annexation will always demands hearing. In Ontario the Jesuit campaign has brought that, aspect of chings home to thousands who would not ok at C. U. The littleness and lastineartedness of the Liberals is also yeary sisheartening. Then again, the truth is that every man who preaching C. U. goods prefer annexafion, so that the yout one around this yay and have a

THE RESULTS.

The battle is now over, and though the results are not in every respect what could be desired they are not at all discounting, on the contrary they show the Canadian people are resolved to retain their own integrity and at least a friendly regard for the Mother Country. Disquise it as the Grit party may, the real question was whether the people desired to see Canada retain its nationality, or take a decided step totards sinking its identity in the republic across the fines, as the trade relations the Grits desired to establish would tend to that eventually. Let the people protest as they might. The man in the current of the Niagora river may declare it is not his intention to go over the falls, but the result is beyond his sensond control, and thus would be the case with Canada, if the trade relations advocated by the

Some useful members of the Househave fallen in the fray, amongst whom are the House Carling and Colby, two members of the exbinet, but on the other hand some superior new blood has been elected. The result in Manutoba is beyond the expectation of the most sanguine lover of good government. No one could have expected such a clear weep of the province, for that is what it really is, as Mr. Watson of the Opposition, has been elected and that by a majority next to a defeat.

In Selkrik the most determined effort was made to defeat Mr. Daly, and the dissomfuture of his opponents is most camplete. Knewing the constituents grass most overschedningly Protestant, the dirits put Mr. Martin, whom they considered invincible because of his provincis; school Ball, into the field. But the result 62 of a majority proves one thing: the proposition of Sir John's government, the repuditation of the contribute for his past services; it be general acceptability of legislation of Sir John's government, and the contempt of the cleators for the austition of booller of Martin. Anything that could be urged against the government could be urged specified by a majority of only 17.9. Mr. Martin fell under an adverse vote of nary three times that manher. The meanity displayed by the Brandon Sen in a counting for the defeat of Mr. Martin is amusing, to say the less of it. Bob Watson" is given 115, but when it is known the figures are about 11 instead, it, of course, detracts very materially from the the people's estimate of honesy. The "tactics" used to defeat Joseph Martin, recording to the San, are pretty well known. We wondor if sending local government officials around the country with dishes of whiskey was one of them! Men were driven to the polis by C. P. R. officials and voted in gangs. Aye, a quer lot of sheep these C. P. The result in Manutola is beind the expectation of the most sanguine of the material Martin's majority of 400 was made of in the Sun of a veral days before.

If Hon. Mr. Martin and his friends put their hands into their pants pocket also or a special they could have done so, and doubtless would have done so but they could not find the voters willing to vote for Martin in Montana or anywher-elso. When Reformers, resident of the city and constituency, would not vote for the tax sale hero, it is unreasonable to think they would have cons from least also.

It is is said the Hon. Joe Martin is going to contest the constituency of the "Union Square" next election. It is believed he could secure a majority there.

The day of the elections the Brandon Sun telephoned the Mair office for the lean of a rooster to place at the head of the election columns. It is needless to say the "fowl" was not used, as a cluck-

The recent attempt to form a combination of the manufacturers in the States has fallen through, and competition promises to be as keen seen farm Implements, a paper published at Mnneapolis, has a cartoon, representing a street in a country town, implement warehouses line the street, lecorated with signs offering binders at virious cut prices. One firm offers at virious cut prices. One firm offers at chromo with every binder, while another offers to throw un a mower free.

The last issue of Grip contains an excellent cartoon in which the Reform coach is represented as being driven at a furious pace by Sir Richard Cartwright. Hon. Edward Blake is shown in the act jumping off behind. The inscription is "couldn't stand the pace." Just so. There so many other staunch free traders, who have supported the Liberal party in its contest with protection, but who cannot conscientiously follow that party in its recent shift from free trade to a policy of unrestricted reciprocity, which if carried out would mean a vast increase instead of a reduction in our tariff.

Manitoba and the Territories have been coming to the front the last year or two in the expert of live stock. Canada enjoys special facilities for exporting cattle to Great British, as this country is free from quarrantine restrictions imposed upon cattle couning from the United States. Should the Liberal policy of complete free trade with the republic be arried out, this would undoubtdely bring our live stock trade under the restrictions imposed upon atock from the United States, and would result in great injury to this industry.

We wonder what Mr. J. M. Robinson now thinks of his influence in Manitoba as a journalist. He supported Mr. Boyd in Marquette and Mr. Boyd was defeated by the next thing to a mementity. He ried his best to wrong the whole the ried his best to wrong the whole to Grand Master Mulvoy, against Mr. Daly, and the latter gentleman was elected by a majority three times as large as he had before. The local Grit politicians must certainly be very anxious to know when they will mave a chance of getting up a procession such as that held by the Conservatives on Friday evening last. It is doubtful if they get that chance so long as they look upon Greenway, Martin & Co. as the standards of purity.

Fire Hall, Brandon, March 11th, 1891

To THE EDITOR,—

SIR: I wish, through your paper, on behalf of the Chief and member of the Brandon Fire Department, to eat the attention of the public in general to the serious mittake one of our citizen committed last Saturday certains, in throwing open the doors of the chemica room, and so allowing the chemical hors to escape. Now, if i had been a fire wo would have been much, in fact, seriously handicanped.

to escape, would have been much, in fact, seriously handicapped. Now, although the members of the department appreciate to the fullest extent the kindness and willingness of citizens to help us with the apparatus to fires, yet we must respectfully beg and in fact in sist that citizens keep away from all avparatus and doors of the fie hall when the alarm is sounded; for our success depends upon making quiek time and this cannot be done when mistakes occur. At the same time allow the department to thank all oitizens for their past help, and after apparatus is outside of the doors we will always welcome any help in taking apparatus to the scene of fire.

Respectfully yours,

Thos. Sharp, Sec.-Treas.
